

Bad Company, Good Giving: Lead Singer Hits a High Note

Montgomery, AL- June 16, 2015: On May 9th, the band Harmony delighted guests at the Blue Iguana Bar and Grille in Prattville, Alabama. But even more harmonious than the vocals and instruments was the community joining forces for a good cause, the children of Brantwood.

Along with the entertaining set of crowd pleasing songs, a silent auction supplemented the efforts of the band. Big ticket items autographed by big ticket names like Ted Nugent, Bobby Barth, and Nick Saban raised $1,700 for our children to attend Lake Forest Ranch Camp in Macon, Mississippi in early June.

However, the show is not over and the giving continues. Rock legend and lead singer of the band Bad Company Brian Howe heard of the effort being made for the Brantwood youth. He has graciously sent autographed items to be auctioned off with the proceeds benefiting Brantwood. Bidding for the items opened Monday, June 15, 2015 and will close Monday, June 22, 2015 at 7:00 pm.

If you are interested in having a piece of rock history, while making history for a child, please visit the Harmony Band Facebook page(link below) and place your bid in the comments section.

Harmony Band Facebook Page: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/243889255712507/>

