

Rocking with a Mission

Prattville, AL- May 9, 2015: Some of our supporters will be hosting the reunion of the band “Harmony” on Saturday, May 9th at the Blue Iguana Bar and Grille. Doors will open at 7 p.m. with the show beginning promptly at 8 p.m. General tickets will be $10 at the door. There are a limited number of VIP tickets available for $15 each. Call the Blue Iguana for purchasing information.

This event holds a special place in our hearts because there will be a silent auction held and all proceeds will benefit Brantwood. They will auction off two autographed electric guitars. The first guitar will be signed by Bobby Barth of the Southern rock group Blackfoot. Barth is one of the founding members of the rock group AXE. The second guitar will be signed by Ted Nugent. Nugent initially gained fame as the lead guitarist of the Amboy Dukes before embarking on a solo career.

Harmony is Montgomery’s own 70’s rock band which originated from Keggler’s Kove right inside of Bama Lanes. This event will feature the musical stylings of Eddie Wohlford, Jimbo Jones, Kelvin Holly, Bill Hinds, and Tommy Beavers. This could be your last chance to hear these musicians live. If you would like to take a walk down memory lane, this is the way to do it. You get to rock out with a mission: giving back to the children of Brantwood.
